

Instructions for Authors

Manuscripts submitted for publication should be of high academic merit and are accepted on condition that they are contributed solely to the Songklanakarin Journal of Science and Technology (SJST). Manuscripts, parts of which have been previously published in conference proceedings, may be accepted if they contain additional material not previously published and not currently under consideration for publication elsewhere. Manuscripts that involved plagiarism will automatically be rejected. SJST allows reusing published articles for non-commercial only (CC-BY-NC). Submission of a multi-authored manuscript implies the consent of all the participating authors. All manuscripts considered for publication will be peer-reviewed by independent referees.

Submission Checklist

The manuscripts submitted to SJST must include:

1. A manuscript text file containing title page, abstract, keywords, contents, acknowledgments, reference list, author contributions, and appendices (if necessary). No figures or tables should be included in this file. The title page of this file should include the title of the article, full names and affiliations of all authors, and the name, e-mail address, telephone and fax numbers and full postal address of the corresponding author.

2. A figure file containing figures which are clear and high-quality with minimal shading. A figure caption list should precede all the figures.
3. A table file containing all the tables (including title, description, footnotes).
4. A full PDF file containing title page, text, figures and tables (Convert all WORD files into one PDF file)
5. A copyright transfer agreement.
6. An Author's Recommended Reviewer file (at least 2 reviewers from different affiliations than the authors).
7. An explanation file containing the answer to reviewers' comments for the revised manuscript. Authors who are instructed to revise their manuscript have to highlight all point of their responded in text, figure and table files.

Preparing Manuscript

Contributors submitting manuscripts for consideration for publication should follow the following guidelines.

1. Manuscript should be separated into 5 Microsoft Word files (Text, Figure, Table, Agreement, Author's Recommended Reviewer) and a full PDF file. Also insert continuous line numbers in Full PDF file. Full PDF file should include title page, text, figures and tables. Figures and tables should be placed at the end of Full PDF page after references. Please provide us at least 2 Author's Recommended Reviewers. They must be from different affiliations than the authors.
2. Manuscript must be written using high - quality language. For non-native English language authors, the article should be proof - read by a language specialist. Poor use of English could result in immediate rejection of the paper.
3. Manuscript should be no longer than 4500 words, including figures and tables and the combined number of figures and tables should not exceed 10. The inclusion of more figures and tables will reduce the word allowance, and vice versa.
4. Manuscript should be prepared single column, double - spaced, with sufficient margins (3 cm) for editorial and proof - reader's marks 12 pt Times New Roman font should be used throughout and all pages numbered consecutively.
5. Abstracts should be no longer than 200 words. About 5 keywords should also be provided.
6. All measures should be reported in SI units followed if necessary, in the text, by traditional units in parentheses. The quantity "billion" (10⁹ in America, 10¹² in Europe) is ambiguous and should be avoided.

7. Tables and figures should each be numbered consecutively.
8. Line drawings should be of high resolution and high contrast.
9. Acknowledgements should be as brief as possible, in a separate section before the references.
10. Citations of published literature in the text should be given in the APA (American Psychological Association) Style. APA Style uses the author – date citation system. The sources cited in text must be listed alphabetically in the reference list, and vice versa. To insert a citation in text, include the author's surname and year of publication.
One author: (Field, 2005) or Field (2005)
Two authors: (Gass & Varonis, 1984) or Gass and Varonis (1984)
Three to five authors:
First citation: (Tremblay, Richer, Lachance, & Cote, 2010) or Tremblay, Richer, Lachance, and Cote (2010)
Subsequent citations: (Tremblay et al., 2010) or Tremblay et al. (2010)
Six or more authors: (Norris-Shortle et al., 2006) or Norris-Shortle et al. (2006)
Groups (readily identified through abbreviation) as authors:
First citation: (National Institute of Mental Health [NIMH], 2003) or National Institute of Mental Health (NIMH, 2003)
Subsequent citations: (NIMH, 2003) or NIMH (2003)
Groups (no abbreviation) as authors: (University of Pittsburgh, 2005) or University of Pittsburgh (2005)

To cite two or more works together, arrange the in-text citations alphabetically in the same order in which it appear in the reference list. The following are examples of citations that include more than one work in the same parenthesis.

- (Derryberry & Reed, 2005a, 2005b, in press; Rothbart, 2003a, 2003b)
- (Field, 2005; Gass & Varonis, 1984; Norris-Shortle et al., 2006; Tremblay, Richer, Lachance, & Cote, 2010)

11. The references section at the end of the manuscript should list all, only the references cited in the text in alphabetical order of the first author's surname and no number in front of each reference. Titles of the journal or conference proceedings are not abbreviated. The following are examples of references in APA Style.
